

Step Three: Make Your Reservations

Getting outta Dodge is just half the battle. You have to find someplace to stay. Have a list of pet-friendly hotels. At the first sign that you need to bail, call outside the danger zone and make reservations for yourself and your cats. If you wait too long there may be no room at the pet-friendly inn. Here's a list of some of the national hotel chains that take pets:

- Accor Hotels (Motel 6, Studio 6, Red Roof Inns), www.accorhotels.com
- Baymont Inns and Suites (1-866-999-1111), www.lq.com
- Best Western (1-800-780-7234), www.bestwestern.com/
- Comfort Inn, Quality Inn (1-877-424-6423), www.choicehotels.com
- Days Inn (1-800-329-7466), www.daysinn.com
- Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts (1-800-819-5053), www.fourseasons.com
- Some Holiday Inns, call first (1-800-315-2621), www.holiday-inn.com
- Hotel Monaco (1-800-546-7866), www.kimptonhotels.com
- Howard Johnson (1-800-446-4656), www.hojo.com
- La Quinta Inns and Suites (1-866-725-1661), www.lq.com
- Loews Hotels (1-800-23-LOEWS), www.loews.com
- Ramada Inn (1-800-2Ramada), www.ramada.com
- Super 8 (1-800-800-8000), www.super8.com
- Travelodge (1-800-578-7878), www.travelodge.com
- Westin Hotels, W Hotel, Sheraton, Starwood (1-800-937-8461), www.starwoodhotels.com